THE Blue Book relating to the "Alleged Existence of slavery in Hongkong" voluninous one, and contains a series of despatches and enclosures on the subject extending over two years. A very large proportion of these documents or the substance thereof has a ready appeared in our columns; indeed, a good many of the ensures are reports from the Daily Press of proceedings in the Supreme Court. Sir John POPE HERNESSY opens the ball with a long despatch dated January 23rd, 1880, to Lord KIMBERLEY-given in another column, with his Lordship's reply thoroto-enclosing copies of various papers, reports, &c., together with Sir John Small's now historical declaration from the Bench concerning slavery. The Governor in this as in succeeding despatches appears to us to deal with the subjectin an evasive mannor, his principal objects evidently being to shift responsibility, delay action, behaud the elder Sir John, and demonstrate to the Colonial Office the all sufficing value of the Chinese Society formed for the repression of kidnapping. This latter object is attempted not only in the despatch This Illustrated Pamphlet on Perfamery, &c., now reproduced but in nearly all subsequent ones. His Excellency was, in fact, or John Gasnell and Co., London. - [Advt.] [681 never tired of this theme. Thus he refers to the Society in his next despatch, dated June 23rd, 1880, as though it would on the only existing stone pier, Mr. Barnum two petitions one from a man named Tsang San first time, the Chinese are represented in the Society, and the Secretary of State is informready had a beneficial effect." In a despatch dated September 3rd, the Society is again dragged in, and the Chief Justice declared to have expressed his satisfaction at its formation. Again on the 13th November, the GOVERNOR tells Lord KIMBERLEY :- "] "venture, however, to point out to your "Lordship that, in addition to the agency "mentioned in the extract from my desontch. I indicated, in paragraph "another source to which the Government "would have also to look in dealing with "this subject, that is the co-operation of the "leading members of the Chinese community.

"I take some blame to myself for not having "stated this more emphatically, as, in fact, upon it depends the possibility of securing Colonial Secretary on the same subject. LAGGA, and PENANG have been added to the dany beneficial offect in this important matter, quite as much as upon the proper "action of the Police," On the 15th June, 1881, the Govennon concludes another despatch as follows:-"I am happy to add "however, that the Chinese have come forward, and, with your Lordship's sauction. have established a society for the protec-"tion of women and children, which society "is now giving the Government valuable as-1,100 names, and gives Peference to over 2,000 "sistance in the matter." Another despatch of the same date deals entirely with the society, which is said by His Excellency to work smoothly and to be "doing good," The Go-YERNOR further adds :- " The Acting Chief "Justice tells me that he finds these Chinese gentlemen of great assistance in the detec-"tion of kidnappers. An even more attractive programme than before was drawn up, and every item was received with the utmost satisfaction by the audience. The performance commenced with what was called a Roman Tournament, four fair Amazons being handsomely attired in armour, tilted rings, who sliced dummy heads and blew imaginary brains out of eardboard skulls with much grace and dexterity. Mr. Lavater Lee gave a very graceful and finished performance on horseback, including the throw ing of somersaults. ALLEGED CHINESE SLAVERY IN HONGKONG.

We give from the Blue Book, so headed, the following despatches as a first instalment :--GOVERNOR J. POPE HENNESSY, C.M.G., to the RIGHT HON. SIR MICHAEL HICK - BEACH. BART. (Received March 4th, 1880.) Government House, Hougkong, January 29rd, 1890. Sin.—On the 6th of last October (1879) Chief Justice Sir John Smale, in passing sentence on some Chinese prisoners, convicted in one case of purchasing a female for purposes of prostitution, and, in other cases, of kidnapping children, dellvered an able and elaborate judgment on the existence of slavery in Hongkong. I have the honour to lay before you a copy of that judgment, together with a copy of a letter dated the 20th of October from the Chief Justice to the Chief Justice declared that " two specific classes of slavery exist in this Colony, to a very great extent, viz., so-called domestic slavery and slavery for the purposes of prestitution." wards the and of his judgm at he pointed out that Imperial Acts of Parliament as well as local ordinances rendered illogal any form of alayery in this Colony: he expressed the opinion that all the officers of the Crown in Hongkong (including himself) had hitherto failed in their duty in this matter, and he said, the number of slaves in Hongkong had been estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000. His Honour, however, was pleased to add: "Uf this I feel assured, by him pravious acts, that his Excellency the Governor will actively promote all such proceedings as will tend to enforce the laws against slavery here, so that this Colony may become as free from that taint as any other Colony under the British Crown by unforcing laws already in

Two Chineso women were killed in October 1877 by falling from the roof of a house when chased hy an officer of the Registrar General's Department. In the evidence before the Coroner observed that a person paid by the Department to induce Chinese women to prostitute themselves and then inform upon them, bad sworn that one of the deceased women. I made The Right Hon, the EARL OF KIMBERLEY a minute on the petitions, directing them to be sent to the Attorney General as" the parties ap pear to acknowledge being concerned in an il legal transaction." In a few days the papers were returned to me with the following opinion of the Attorney-General

"The transaction releved to would not be recorniced in our laws as giving any rights, except perhaps as to guardianship, but I am unable to say that there is anything illegal in the matter beyond that. I do not think it is a criminal offence if it goes not further than the adoption of achild and the payment of money to its parents for the privilege.

11.-In the face of that opinion I had content myself with directing answers to written to the petitioners to the effect that, according to British law, the father was entitle to get back the child and referring the father to the police magistrate.
